On Thursday May 26, 2005, the Faculty Senate of the School of Law, having been duly convened, met in emergency session to discuss the Board's failure, without limitation, to resolve any of the issues raised in and by the Senate's March 24 and May 20 Resolutions, and the Board's unexplained rejection of the Alumni offer.

The following was voted on and unanimously adopted:

It is the opinion of the Faculty Senate that the Board of Trustees, and its individual members, are in apparent, ongoing, egregious breach of fiduciary duty and the Faculty Senate has no confidence in the Board of Trustees, and its individual members.

Dated: May 26, 2005

Andrew H. Kopkin
Chair, Faculty Senate of the School of Law
